

Welcome to Simply3-day at Thal Boarding and Training. We are happy you have joined our family. Simply 3-Day is a full service training and lesson program. We strive to make this a happy, fun and beneficial place for all involved.

Our goal here is to provide a safe and educational environment for both the horse and rider, to facilitate that we have some rules. Hopefully you will find that they in the spirit of safety, respect and consideration.

1. Come to the barn dressed in clothing appropriate for riding. No Tank tops or Flip- Flops.
2. Helmets are required when ever a top a horse
3. Be warmed up by your lesson time.
4. Ask permission before observing a lesson. This is a great opportunity to learn but some people do not like to be watched.
5. Cancel lessons at the earliest opportunity. There might be someone waiting for your spot.
6. Horses should be groomed and equipment regularly cleaned and maintained.
7. Make cross ties available for those heading for a lesson.
8. No chasing horses when they are turned out. This is unsafe for both the horse and rider
9. A protective jump vest is recommended when jumping but no required.
10. Please clean up after you horse before you leave the tack up area.
11. Do not interrupt a lesson unless it is an emergency.
12. Please schedule farrier and vets with Gilly so she can be there.
13. Pickup any horse manure from the indoor and outside dressage arenas
14. Feel free to ask Gilly anything

We want to have a great time while you are with us.
